Why Music at SUNY Orange?

You can enjoy a wide variety of music courses in three different emphasis areas: music performance, jazz and commercial music, or music business. You can polish your skills as a performing musician or prepare for possible transfer to a four-year program. You will have the chance to participate in active musical ensembles that enrich the community through a variety of performances and take advantage of an ongoing visiting artist series that enables students to learn directly from some of the best contemporary performing artists in workshops featuring musicians such as Cindy Blackman (drummer for Lenny Kravitz), Randy Brecker, Bob Mintzer, Ray Barretto and Kenny Barron.
