Academic Advising

In conjunction with its academic departments, SUNY Orange boasts a thorough advising program that is coordinated by the Advising and Counseling Center. The College recognizes that access to academic guidance is vital to the educational process and a student's success. Based on a student's area of study, an advisor or counselor is assigned to assist the student in developing and meeting his or her academic goals.

Following is a broad sampling of the College's academic advising support:

- Undeclared Students: By group and individual appointments, a counselor will guide students in developing academic and career goals
- Developmental Students: Individualized attention is provided to students who, based on the assessment test, are taking courses to prepare them for their major course of study
- Individual Studies Students: The individual studies degree is designed for the student whose goals are not adequately addressed by one of the College's other programs. The student will work closely with the individual studies advisor to prepare a program of study for approval by the College's academic affairs department.
- Returning Adult Students: Because the needs of the adult student are often unique, the College has a variety of services and programs to meet those needs. A non-credit course, Adult Re-Entry, is offered every semester for adults who would like assistance in developing a personalized life and career plan.

Personal/Social Counseling

The Advising and Counseling Center offers short-term non-clinical counseling to students needing assistance in adjusting to college life. Advisors and counselors will work with students to develop their own insights into the decision-making process through a healthy, growth-oriented interpersonal relationship.

Information related to advising and counseling services is confidential unless disclosure is required to prevent clear and imminent danger to the student or others, or when legal requirements demand that confidential information be revealed. When disclosure is required, only information that is essential will be revealed and the student will be informed of such disclosure to the best extent possible.

Referrals to community resources are available and will be made when requested or deemed necessary, but follow-through is at the discretion of the student.

Transfer Counseling

As members of the New York State Transfer and Articulation Association, the College's counselors have developed contacts with many of the four-year colleges and universities where a majority of SUNY Orange students transfer to complete their undergraduate and post-graduate degrees.

These relationships are instrumental to helping SUNY Orange counselors guide students through the transfer process. Careful planning with a counselor can streamline the student's transfer process to their college of choice. The Advising and Counseling Center will assist the student with this process through the selection of courses, academic major/program, transfer colleges and completion of application materials.

In addition, the Center sponsors College Transfer Days in the fall semester, inviting approximately 90 public and private college and university representatives to campus to discuss their programs.

Assessment Center

All degree-seeking students are required to participate in an assessment of their English and math skills prior to registering for classes, unless a waiver of the test is granted. This assessment is designed to ensure that students are placed into the appropriate classes based on their abilities.

Advisors and counselors are available to discuss how the results of the assessment test fit into the student's academic and career goals. For further information, please call 341-4045.

Students who do not have a high school diploma from an accredited and registered high school, or a high school equivalency diploma, but wish to apply for financial aid must meet minimum score requirements on the Placement Assessment/Ability to Benefit Test to be academically eligible for financial aid.

The Advising and Counseling Center also offers computer-based College Level Entrance Examinations (CLEP) tests, which allow the student the opportunity to earn college credits in various subject areas based on the results of the test. Students should consult with an advisor/counselor prior to taking a CLEP exam in order to discuss applicability and transferability of credits to a degree program. For further information, please call 341-4073.

The College's Veterans Affairs representative, located in the Advising and Counseling Center, provides support services to meet the needs of students with military educational benefits. For further information, please call 341-4071.
