Program for Lifelong Learning

SAMUEL LANGHORNE CLEMENS came into this world Nov. 30, 1835 while Halley's comet blazed in the sky. His Mother said: "I could see no promise in him." But she hoped the comet was a good omen for his future.

and so began the life of
"MARK TWAIN"

Join Encore, and its' members, as we go on a journey to discover the life and times of "MARK TWAIN".

We will visit Mark Twain's home in Hartford, CT, Sept. 23, 2019. The home the "Hartford Daily News" called "one of the oddest-looking buildings in the state ever designed for a dwelling.", the owner thought it perfect. We will tour the home, see the short version of the Ken Burns film on MARK TWAIN, have lunch catered at the museum and be entertained at lunch by a gentleman reenacting George, the Clemens' butler. PLEASE NOTE: THE MARK TWAIN HOUSE IS ONLY WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE ON THE FIRST FLOOR. THOSE UNABLE TO TRAVERSE STAIRS TO UPPER FLOORS WILL BE ESCORTED BACK TO THE MUSEUM STORE AS GUESTS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO REMAIN IN THE HOUSE ALONE. Our trip will leave SUNY Orange 8:30 am SHARP, returning at 4:30 pm.

For those wishing to have a better informed understanding of Mark Twain, on Sept. 9th & 16th we are offering the full version of the Ken Burns film "MARK TWAIN", as Encore classes. Check your fall schedule of classes for times.
