

Did you know you may be in Danger of losing your Financial Aid if you do not consider the following:

When planning your schedule

Consider this:

- Both Federal and State law mandate the courses you take must apply toward your degree program.
- Federal and State aid programs do not allow for payment on repeated passed courses. The only exceptions are for required courses with a grade requirement prerequisite from a prior course taken. An example of such a prerequisite requirement would be: Mat 121 which has a prerequisite of C- or higher in Mat 102 and the student achieved a grade of D. The student would be funded by both State and Federal aid for the repeated Mat 102 class as long as Mat 121 was required by the Student's program. Another example would be: a student fails or withdraws from a course; the student would be allowed to repeat the course in an upcoming semester.
- First-time New York State Grant and Scholarship (TAP, WTC, etc.) recipients must be registered full-time. However, at least three credits must be college-level class work. Second-time New York State Grant and Scholarship recipients or Transfer students who received New York State Grants and Scholarships at another college must be registered full-time and be taking at least 6 credits of college-level course work. If a student has been registered for more than 2 semesters of college and is taking developmental coursework, they should check with a financial aid counselor in order to see how many college-level classes they need to take in order to receive TAP and other NYS Grants and Scholarships.

Before You Drop a Class, Withdraw from College, or Simply Stop Attending

Consider this:

- You could lose your financial aid eligibility for this semester and for future semesters: TAP and other New York State, Pell and other Federal Grants, Loans and Scholarships can be impacted drastically.
- If you have attempted 30 credits of developmental course work, you will not be eligible for any additional federal aid if the course work is developmental. Once you have attempted 30 credits of developmental course work, you will no longer be eligible to receive financial aid for developmental courses.
- Your financial aid could be reduced and you may have to repay part or all of your tuition and/or financial aid.
- Should you drop below full-time student status, you may become ineligible for coverage under your parents' health insurance.
- You will or may have a "W" (withdrawal) grade on your permanent SUNY Orange academic transcript.
- If you participate in intercollegiate athletics and you drop to part-time status, you may become ineligible to play, and could jeopardize the team.
- You will have to pay the tuition again to take the same course(s) in the future if the course(s) you drop are required for graduation.

- Should your enrollment status/attendance drop below 6 credits, your current aid may be affected and you may become ineligible for certain aid programs such as Stafford Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans or a Pell Grant.

Important

- If you drop a course and are receiving a grant, loan, or scholarship, please check with a Financial Aid counselor for a review on the impact this may have with your future aid and with the Business Office for a review on the impact this may have on your current aid.
- All state grant and scholarship programs can be affected if you drop classes or withdraw from college. These grants and programs include, but are not limited to: TAP, Child of a Veteran, Memorial Scholarship for families of Deceased Firefighters, Volunteer Firefighters, Police Officers and Emergency Medical Service Workers, WTC, Flight 587, Military Service Recognition, Volunteer Recruitment Service, Aid to Native Americans, Vietnam Veterans, Academic Excellence, Regents, NY Lottery, and Robert Byrd.
- All federal grant and scholarship programs can be affected if you drop classes or withdraw from college. These grants and programs include, but are not limited to: Pell, SEOG, ACG, Federal Work Study, Perkins Loans, and Stafford Loans.

Attendance is important. Instructors may withdraw students from courses for excessive absences. If illness, accident or similar circumstances make it impossible for a student to attend classes for three or more consecutive days, it is the student's responsibility to notify the Records and Registration Office immediately. Financial Aid may be impacted.

You do have alternatives to consider:

- Ask the instructor for help and a realistic assessment of your performance in the class. Your instructor can help you, and you may be doing better than you think.
- Contact Learning Assistance Services in the Library, or your academic department's lab, or utilize a private supplemental instructor or tutor.
- Talk to your academic advisor, or seek assistance at the Advising and Counseling Office.
- Drop back to an easier course. If you do drop back to an easier course, check with the Financial Aid Office to see if it will impact your current aid.
