1. President's report

A. Dr. Young:

- She did not show up to our meeting like it was scheduled.

B. Association Meeting Update

- The meeting lasted half an hour and everything was straight-forward
- The micro-markets are making a profit. The the information on the screen will still show how much you spend but it will stop showing the customer's name. Vinny meets with them once a month.
- Vinny meets with the food truck vendor, the truck will possibly be selling hot foods such as breakfast sandwiches.
- Bookstore is going under renovation in Middletown during the winter break.

C. Committees update

- We can not have food giveaways or bake sales because we have a surplus.
- Sam and Bolaji had a meeting and Barbara apologized for going off at NSS.
- Only 2 students are still interested in sitting on the committees next semester. The students will not be sitting on a committee this semester due not enough meetings.
- At the Executive Committee, working on better communication was discussed.

D. ICC Meeting update

- Criminal Justice did not show up
- There was a lot of miscommunication
- It was suggested that clubs get in their budgets for next semester at the end of this semester.
- Next ICC Meeting is November 17th at 3pm.

E. China Trip

- Bolaji spoke to Paul over the phone about how many Newburgh students signed up for the trip to China, but his answer was not clear. We are still going to follow up with him until we do get a clear answer before doing something about the proposal.

F. Retreat

- From January 12-14, 2018. 20 NSS and BOA students from Newburgh and 20 from Middletown are able to sign up. If you sign up and do not go, you have to pay $209. There are 9 seats left.

2. Promotions report
