

BROWNFIELDS WORKSHOP

Brownfield Tax Credits: An Incentive for Siting Combined Heat and Power (CHP)

April 21, 2009

Orange Community College, Harriman Hall Room 111
Middletown, New York

Agenda

As of March 25, 2009

Time	Topics and Speakers
10:45 am	Registration Check-In
11:00 am	Welcome and Introductions Tom Kelly , Energy Policy Analyst, Pace University Energy and Climate Center
11:05 am	Brownfield Development in the Empire State Importance to New York Charles Radier , Director of Business Development, Empire State Development
11:30 am	Brownfield and CHP Opportunities Existing Brownfield Redevelopment Programs Tom Kelly , Energy Policy Analyst, Pace University Energy and Climate Center Clean Onsite CHP Opportunities Tom Kelly , Energy Policy Analyst, Pace University Energy and Climate Center Success Stories Tom Kelly , Energy Policy Analyst, Pace University Energy and Climate Center
12:15 pm	Open Discussion: CHP and Brownfields – Opportunities for End Users Roundtable and audience discussion on market sector opportunities; Brownfields needs that can be met with CHP; and technical and financial assistance available for project development, design, and implementation.
12:45 pm	Adjourn

To register for this free event, please contact:

Tom Kelly
Energy Policy Analyst
Pace Energy and Climate Center
78 N Broadway
White Plains, NY 10603
(914) 422-4126
tkelly@law.pace.edu